PROXY STATEMENT

For the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Tuesday, June 17, 2003.

ANNUAL MEETING

The enclosed form of proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Enterasys Networks, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Meeting") to be held at the offices of Ropes & Gray, One International Place, Boston, MA 02110, on Tuesday, June 17, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Time, and at any and all adjourned sessions thereof.

The proxies named in the form of proxy have been designated by the Board of Directors of the Company. Giving the proxy will not affect your right to revoke the proxy prior to voting or your right to vote in person should you decide to attend the Meeting. Shares represented by the enclosed form of proxy, when properly executed and presented, will be voted as directed therein.

This Proxy Statement, the enclosed form of proxy and the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders (the "Annual Report"), including financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, will be mailed together to the Company's stockholders on or about May 5, 2003.

Matters to be Considered at the Annual Meeting

The specific proposals to be considered and acted upon at the Meeting are summarized in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Proxy Solicitation

The expense of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Officers and regular employees of the Company (who will receive no compensation in addition to their regular salaries) may communicate directly or by mail, telephone, or other communication methods with stockholders to solicit proxies. The Company will also reimburse brokers and other persons for their reasonable charges and expenses in forwarding soliciting materials to their principals.

Outstanding Shares and Voting Power

The holders of record of shares of the Company's common stock, $.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), at the close of business on April 17, 2003 are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting. As of that date the Company had issued and outstanding 203,076,671 shares of Common Stock. All shares of the Company's Common Stock vote together as a single class on all matters. On each matter to come before the Meeting, each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote.

Consistent with state law and under the Company's by-laws, a majority of the shares entitled to be cast on a particular matter, present in person or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum. Abstentions and "broker non-votes" (i.e., shares represented at the Meeting held by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote and (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power on a particular matter) are counted as present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Meeting will be counted by persons appointed by the Company to act as election inspectors for the Meeting.

The nominees for election as directors at the Meeting will be elected if they receive a plurality of votes properly cast. The election inspectors will count the total number of votes cast "for" each nominee for the purpose of determining which nominees have received the most votes. Neither abstentions nor broker non-votes will have any effect on the outcome of voting on the election of the Directors.

Voting Electronically Via the Internet or by Telephone

Stockholders whose shares are registered directly with EquiServe may vote either via the Internet or by calling EquiServe. Specific instructions to be followed by any registered stockholder interested in voting via the Internet or by telephone are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The Internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate your identity and to allow you to vote your shares and to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded.

If your shares are registered in the name of a bank or brokerage firm and you have not elected to receive your Annual Report and Proxy Statement over the Internet, you may be eligible to vote your shares electronically over the Internet or by telephone. A large number of banks and brokerage firms are participating in the ADP Investor Communication Services online program. This program provides eligible stockholders who receive a paper copy of the Annual Report and Proxy Statement the opportunity to vote via the Internet or by telephone. If your bank or brokerage firm is participating in ADP's program, your voting form will provide instructions. If your voting form does not reference Internet or telephone information, or if you do not wish to vote via the internet or telephone, please complete and return the paper proxy card in the self-addressed, postage paid envelope provided. Stockholders who elected to receive the Annual Report and Proxy Statement over the Internet will receive an e-mail on or about May 5, 2003 with information on how to access the Annual Report and Proxy Statement and instructions for voting.

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by (i) returning to the Company another properly signed proxy representing such shares and bearing a later date, (ii) delivering a written revocation to the Secretary of the Company, or (iii) attending the Meeting or any adjourned session thereof and voting in person the shares covered by the proxy. Shares represented by the enclosed form of proxy properly executed and returned, and not revoked, will be voted at the Meeting as directed therein. If a proxy is properly executed and received by the Secretary of the Company, but no instructions are indicated, then the proxy will be voted to elect the persons named below as nominees for director, and in the manner as the person named on the enclosed proxy card in his or her discretion determines upon such other business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF CLASS II DIRECTORS

The Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide for the classification of the Board of Directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of one class expiring each year. The Board of Directors has voted to fix the number of directors at five. Unless otherwise instructed, the enclosed proxy will be voted to elect the persons named below as Class II director nominees for a term of three years expiring at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders or, if later, at the time their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. If any of the nominees are unavailable as a candidate at the Meeting, votes pursuant to the proxy will be voted either for a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors or, in the absence of such designation, in such other manner as the directors may in their discretion determine. Alternatively, in such a situation, the Board of Directors may take action to fix the number of directors for the ensuing year at less than five, depending on the number of nominees who are then able to serve. The Board of Directors does not anticipate that any nominee will become unavailable as a candidate.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE NOMINEES AS CLASS II DIRECTOR.

Information with Respect to the Board of Directors and Committee Organization

During the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, the Board of Directors of the Company held a total of fifteen meetings and acted by unanimous written consent on two other occasions. The Company has a standing Audit Committee and a standing Incentive Compensation Committee. No director attended fewer than 75% of the Board of Directors meetings or meetings of committees of the Board of Directors on which he served.

The Audit Committee, which held five meetings during fiscal 2002, reviews with management and the Company's independent public accountants the Company's financial statements, the accounting principles applied in their preparation, the scope of the audit, any comments made by the independent auditors regarding the financial condition of the Company and its accounting controls and procedures, and such other matters as the Audit Committee deems appropriate. In addition, the Audit Committee reviews with management such matters relating to compliance with corporate policies as the Audit Committee deems appropriate. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee. Messrs. Duncan, Huston and Maheu, none of whom is a current or former executive officer or employee of the Company, currently serve on the Audit Committee. Through December 2002, Craig R. Benson, a former director of the Company, served on the committee, and from December 2002 until Mr. Maheu's appointment in February 2003, Mr. Davidson served on the committee. Messrs. Duncan, Huston and Maheu are independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. Messrs. The Incentive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors held one committee meeting and acted by written consent fourteen times during fiscal 2002. In general, the function of the Incentive Compensation Committee is to review the operation of the Company's equity incentive plans and related programs of the Company. Messrs. Duncan and Huston currently serve on the Incentive Compensation Committee.

Director Compensation

Meeting Fees

For their services to the Company, non-employee directors receive an annual retainer of $20,000, plus $1,500 for each Board of Directors and committee meeting attended in person or via telephone. Committee chairmen receive an additional $500 per committee meeting. Directors who are employed by the Company do not receive compensation for attendance at Board of Directors or committee meetings. Directors are reimbursed for expenses attendant to Board membership.

Pursuant to the Deferral Plan for Directors, adopted by the Board of Directors in October 2001, prior to the first day of the calendar year, or within 30 days of becoming a non-employee director, non-employee directors may elect to defer all or a portion of their fees for that calendar year, and any deferred fees earn interest at a rate equal to the rate payable on ten-year United States Treasury securities as of the first day of the calendar year. Deferred fees are payable to the director upon the earliest to occur of the conclusion of the director's service on the Board of Directors, the approval of a hardship request by the plan administrator, or the termination of the plan.

2002 Eligible Director Option Policy

In October 2002, the Board of Directors approved a policy (the "2002 Eligible Director Option Policy") pursuant to which each independent, non-employee director of the Company (an "Eligible Director") was awarded an option to purchase 75,000 shares of Common Stock at the Company's annual stockholders meeting held in December 2002. Messrs. Duncan and Huston were the only Eligible Directors as of the date of the annual stockholders meeting and were each granted an option to purchase 75,000 shares of Common Stock. These options were granted under the Company's 1998 Equity Incentive Plan and vest in three equal installments on each "vesting date" following the date of grant. For purposes of grants under the 2002 Eligible Director Option Policy, "vesting date" means, in each calendar year, the earlier of the anniversary of the date of grant or the date immediately prior to the date of the annual meeting of stockholders.

The policy also provides that each person newly elected or appointed as an Eligible Director will be awarded an option to purchase 75,000 shares of Common Stock on the date of such election or appointment. Each option will be granted under the Company's 1998 Equity Incentive Plan and will vest in three equal installments on each "vesting date" following the date of grant. Upon Mr. Maheu's appointment to the Board of Directors in February 2003, Mr. Maheu was granted an option to purchase 75,000 shares of Common Stock.

The policy also provides for subsequent option grants to Eligible Directors. Beginning with the third annual meeting of stockholders held after an Eligible Director's initial grant, and continuing with each annual meeting of stockholders thereafter, an Eligible Director will be awarded under the Company's 1998 Equity Incentive Plan an option to purchase 25,000 shares of Common Stock. This option will be fully vested on the first "vesting date" following the date of grant.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No member of the Company's current Incentive Compensation Committee has ever served as an officer or employee of the Company. None of the Company's executive officers serves as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of any entity that has one or more executive officers serving on the Company's Board of Directors or Incentive Compensation Committee.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee reviews and discusses with management and the Company's independent auditors the Company's financial statements, the accounting principles applied in their preparation, any comments made by the independent auditors and such other matters as the Audit Committee deems appropriate. The Audit Committee also discusses with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee periodically meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal and disclosure controls and procedures, and the Company's financial reporting.

The independent auditors report to the Audit Committee and to the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee has sole authority to appoint and to terminate the engagement of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has discussed with the Company's independent auditors, KPMG LLP, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees), as currently in effect, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of the disclosures in the financial statements.

In addition, the Audit Committee received from KPMG LLP the written disclosures required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), as currently in effect, and discussed with KPMG LLP that firm's independence from the Company and its management. In concluding that KPMG LLP is independent, the Audit Committee determined, among other things, that the nonaudit services provided by KPMG LLP were compatible with their independence. Consistent with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Audit Committee has adopted policies to ensure the independence of the independent auditors, such as prior committee approval of nonaudit services and required audit partner rotation.

The Company established an internal audit department in 2002. The Company's internal audit director reports directly to the Audit Committee, in addition to his management reporting responsibility. The Audit Committee meets regularly with the internal audit director, with and without management present, to discuss the overall scope and plans for internal audit and to discuss the results of internal audit examinations and evaluations of the Company's internal and disclosure controls and procedures.

Based on the review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board subsequently approved the recommendation) that the Company's audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, and filed with the SEC. The Audit Committee has also appointed KPMG LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the 2003 fiscal year.

Option Grants in the Last Fiscal Year

The following table sets forth grants of options to purchase shares of Common Stock during the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002 to those executive officers listed in the Summary Compensation Table. The potential realizable value of each option set forth in the table below is calculated based upon the terms of the option at its date of grant. It is calculated assuming that the fair market value of the underlying common stock on the date of grant, which is generally the exercise price for the option, appreciates at the indicated annual rates compounded annually for the entire term of the option and that the option is exercised and sold on the last day of its term for the appreciated stock price. These numbers are calculated based on the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not reflect the Company's estimate of future stock price growth.

The percentage of total options to purchase shares of the Common Stock granted to employees in the last fiscal year is based on options to purchase an aggregate of 8,075,121 shares of Common Stock granted to employees of the Company during that fiscal year. All options were granted at the fair market value on the date of grant.

As indicated in the table, certain options granted to Messrs. O'Brien and Doron were granted pursuant to the 2002 Stock Option Plan for Eligible Executives ("SOPEE") and have fully vested. All other options listed in the table were granted pursuant to the 1998 Equity Incentive Plan ("EIP") and vest as to 25% of the shares on the first anniversary of the date of grant, then pro rata on a monthly basis thereafter. Vesting of all options granted under the 1998 Equity Incentive Plan accelerates by ten months in the event of a change in control, as defined in the option plan, and may also be subject to further acceleration pursuant to the Company's change-in-control severance benefit plans for key employees.

Report of the Incentive Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Board of Directors. The Board's Incentive Compensation Committee determines the recipients and terms of grants of stock-based incentive awards under the Company's 1998 Equity Incentive Plan and administers the Company's 2002 Stock Option Plan for Eligible Executives, 2002 Employee Stock Purchase Plan and 2001 Equity Incentive Plan. The Incentive Compensation Committee is comprised of Messrs. Duncan and Huston. This report is submitted by the Incentive Compensation Committee and addresses the Company's compensation policies for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002 as they affected the Company's executive officers.

Executive Officer Compensation

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract, retain and reward executives who are capable of leading the Company in achieving its business objectives in the competitive and rapidly changing computer networking industry. The compensation program is based on the philosophy that cash compensation should vary with the performance of the Company and any long-term incentive should closely align the officers' interests with the interests of the Company's stockholders.

Compensation for the executive officers consists of base salary, an incentive cash bonus segment and a stock-based incentive segment. In setting base salary levels, the Board of Directors reviews compensation for competitive positions in the industry and the historical compensation levels of the executives. Increases in annual salaries year-to-year are based upon corporate performance and merit ratings measured by actual individual performance and various subjective performance criteria. The Board does not formally weigh these factors pursuant to a fixed formula.

The Company has established an incentive cash bonus program for its managerial employees, including executive officers. Incentive cash bonuses are awarded annually based on corporate performance as well as objective and subjective performance goals individually tailored for each participant. Objective performance goals typically include specific targets for financial performance, such as revenue, operating income and cash flow, and operating measurements, such as improvements in inventory management and logistics. An executive's incentive bonus may also depend upon discretionary criteria, such as mix of products sold, end-of-quarter backlog, product returns and other factors related to the executive's operating unit. On an annualized basis, target incentive cash bonus awards for the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, other than Messrs. O'Brien, Doron and Fiallo, were 50% of the executive's base salary. Messrs. O'Brien and Doron did not participate in the incentive cash bonus program during fiscal 2002. Target incentive cash bonus awards for Mr. Fiallo are discussed below under the section titled "Chief Executive Officer Compensation." The Board of Directors approved the payment of target incentive cash bonuses for fiscal 2002 to each of the executive officers in the Summary Compensation Table based upon a combination of factors, including the individual's bonus target, an evaluation of their performance and the Company's performance relative to pre-determined financial objectives. These bonuses were paid in April 2003 and are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table. Also, in fiscal 2002, Messrs. Haak and Lillelund received special $50,000 and $10,000 retention bonuses, respectively, which are also reflected in the Summary Compensation Table. Mr. Haak's retention bonus was paid in connection with Mr. Haak's decision to accept his promotion to Chief Financial Officer in October 2002.

The Company also seeks to provide long-term compensation through its stock-based incentive compensation program. Stock options are granted to aid in the retention of key employees, including eligible executive officers, and to align the interests of key employees with those of stockholders. Stock options are granted at an exercise price equal to the fair market value on the date of grant. Stock options are granted to key employees, including the executive officers, based on current performance, anticipated future contribution, ability to contribute to the achievement of the Company's strategic goals and objectives, awards generally made to persons in comparable positions in the industry, and the individual's current level of Company stock holdings.

Consistent with the parameters of the Company's stock-based incentive compensation program, Messrs. Doron, Haak, Lillelund, Roese and O'Brien were awarded stock-based incentives. Details on stock options granted to the named executive officers during the transition period ended December 28, 2002 are provided in the table entitled "Option Grants in the Last Fiscal Year."

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally limits to $1 million the tax deduction a public company may claim in any taxable year for compensation to the chief executive officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers unless certain conditions related to such compensation are satisfied. The Incentive Compensation Committee takes into account the regulations under Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) issued by the Internal Revenue Service. However, the Incentive Compensation Committee intends to continue basing its executive compensation decisions primarily upon performance achieved, both corporate and individual, while retaining the right to make subjective decisions and to award compensation that may or may not meet all of the Internal Revenue Service's requirements for deductibility.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Mr. O'Brien was appointed Chief Executive Officer on an interim basis effective as of April 5, 2002 and assumed the additional position of President on January 1, 2003. During the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, cash compensation for Mr. O'Brien consisted of a base salary of $900,000. Mr. O'Brien was not eligible for, and no bonuses were paid to Mr. O'Brien, during fiscal 2002. In setting Mr. O'Brien's overall salary, incentive award targets, and stock compensation levels, the Incentive Compensation Committee considered current compensation levels for the Company's executive officers, Mr. O'Brien's level of responsibility, and the particular challenges faced by the Company in fiscal 2002. In consideration of these particular challenges, the Company and Mr. O'Brien entered into an Employment Agreement effective as of April 1, 2002 and expiring on December 31, 2002. The agreement, among other things, provided for a base salary of $100,000 per month and the grant of an option to purchase up to 500,000 shares of Common Stock. This agreement is discussed in more detail on page 18 of this Proxy Statement. Upon expiration of the employment agreement, Mr. O'Brien, agreed to continue as Chief Executive Officer of the Company, becoming an at-will employee and reducing his base salary to $500,000. Mr. O'Brien's current salary reflects an evaluation of compensation levels for similar positions in the industry, historical compensation levels for the position, and the compensation levels for the Company's other executive officers.

Mr. Fiallo was appointed Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer effective as of August 6, 2001, and served in that capacity until his resignation effective as of April 5, 2002. During the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, cash compensation for Mr. Fiallo consisted of a base salary of $153,846. Mr. Fiallo's target annual incentive cash bonus was 125% of his base salary. No bonuses were paid to Mr. Fiallo during fiscal 2002. In connection with his resignation, the Company entered into a Separation Agreement and Release with Mr. Fiallo pursuant to which Mr. Fiallo received $9,615 per week for a period of twelve months from April 5, 2002. This agreement is discussed in more detail on page 18 of this Proxy Statement. In setting Mr. Fiallo's overall salary, incentive award targets, stock compensation levels, and severance arrangement, the Incentive Compensation Committee considered current compensation levels for the Company's executive officers and Mr. Fiallo's level of responsibility.

Change-in-Control Severance Benefit Plan for Key Employees

The Company has amended, restated and renamed its 2002 Change-in-Control Severance Benefit Plan for Key Employees effective as of April 26, 2002. The plan provides severance benefits for various key employees designated by the Board, including each of the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table, in the event of specified terminations of employment following a “change in control” (as defined below).

Pursuant to the plan, if a participant’s employment is terminated for reasons deemed to be without cause or by the participant for reasons deemed to be valid under the plan within the 18-month period following a change in control, the participant will receive the following severance benefits from the Company:

- an amount equal to the annual base salary of the participant in effect immediately before the date of termination or immediately before the change in control, whichever is higher;
- an amount equal to the highest aggregate amount of bonus paid to the participant in cash (or, if not paid in cash, deferred) in any one of the three most recent fiscal years ended before the termination or the participant’s target incentive bonus for the fiscal year in which the change in control occurs, whichever is higher;
- a pro-rated portion of the target incentive bonus of the participant for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs, adjusted for periods for which the participant has already been paid amounts under the incentive bonus arrangement;
- accelerated vesting of participant’s options to purchase shares of Common Stock, such that the number of options that would have become vested and exercisable during the seven months (or for those four participants who were participants in the Cabletron change-in-control plan, the eighteen months) following the participant’s termination of employment will become immediately vested and exercisable for a period of 90 days;
- the right to continue to participate in the Company’s medical, dental and life insurance plans or programs for a period of one year following termination; and
- a gross-up payment which will apply if amounts paid to a participant would be effectively reduced by a federal excise tax on excess parachute payments, in which case a participant will be entitled to receive additional cash so that the participant will have received the amount that the participant would have received in the absence of any parachute tax after the participant has paid the parachute taxes.

A change in control under the plan generally includes the following events:

- a person or group becomes the beneficial owner of thirty percent (30%) or more of the then outstanding shares of Common Stock or the combined voting power of the Company’s then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote for the election of directors;
- directors at the time of adoption of the plan, or later approved by the Board, cease to constitute a majority of the Company’s Board;
- a merger, consolidation or other reorganization involving the Company, or a sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, other than certain defined transactions; or
- approval by the stockholders of a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

Employment Agreements

In consideration of the particular challenges faced by the Company in fiscal 2002, and in connection with Mr. O'Brien's agreement to serve as interim Chief Executive Officer, Mr. O'Brien and the Company entered into an employment agreement, effective as of April 1, 2002, which terminated in accordance with its terms on December 31, 2002. Following termination of this agreement, Mr. O'Brien, with the approval of the Board of Directors, determined to continue as Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company and became an at-will employee of the Company. Under the employment agreement, Mr. O'Brien's base salary was $100,000 per month during the term of the agreement, and Mr. O'Brien was granted an option to purchase up to 500,000 shares of Common Stock. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, the stock option was scheduled to vest in 12 equal monthly installments unless the Company met specified revenue, cash flow and operating income targets, in which case the vesting accelerated as provided in the agreement. As of December 31, 2002, all 500,000 shares were fully vested.

Mr. Doron joined the Company at the same time as Mr. O'Brien, and the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Doron. The Company's agreement with Mr. Doron included substantially the same terms as the Company's agreement with Mr. O'Brien, except that Mr. Doron's base salary was $80,000 per month during the term of the agreement and Mr. Doron was granted an option to purchase up to 400,000 shares of Common Stock. Mr. Doron's employment agreement terminated in accordance with its terms on December 31, 2002, at which time Mr. Doron resigned as President and terminated his employment with the Company. As of December 31, 2002, all 400,000 shares were fully vested and were exercisable for a period of 90 days from December 31, 2002, the date Mr. Doron terminated his employment with the Company.

Separation Agreements

In connection with Mr. Fiallo's resignation and termination of employment effective as of April 5, 2002, the Company and Mr. Fiallo entered into a Separation Agreement and Release. Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Fiallo was entitled to receive $9,615 per week for a period of twelve months from April 5, 2002, subject to his compliance with the terms of the agreement. In addition, a $100,000 promissory note delivered to the Company by Mr. Fiallo on August 23, 1999 and a $125,000 promissory note delivered to the Company by Mr. Fiallo on January 1, 2000 were forgiven. As of April 5, 2002, Mr. Fiallo held vested options for the purchase of 1,081,971 shares of Common Stock, all of which expired unexercised on July 4, 2002. As of April 5, 2002, Mr. Fiallo also held 933,316 unvested options, all of which terminated on that date.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

On February 21, 2003, an investor group led by Silver Lake Partners, L.P. ("Silver Lake") notified the Company of their intention to exercise their right to redeem their shares of Series D and E Preferred Stock effective as of February 23, 2002. On March 3 2003, the Company redeemed all of the outstanding shares of Series D and E Preferred Stock for approximately $98.6 million in cash. James Davidson, one of the Company's directors, is a founder and principal of Silver Lake.

On August 23, 1999, the Company entered into an interest-free promissory note with Mr. Fiallo, former Chief Executive Officer of the Company, in the amount of $100,000. The outstanding principal balance on the note of $100,000 was forgiven by the Company in connection with Mr. Fiallo's resignation and termination of employment in April 2002. On January 1, 2000, the Company entered into an interest-free promissory note with Mr. Fiallo for the principal amount of $125,000. Pursuant to the terms of the note, the Company forgave 25% of the original principal balance of the note on January 1, 2001 and forgave the remaining original principal balance of $93,500 in connection with the merger of the Enterasys Subsidiary into the Company in August 2001.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDER RETURN

The graph below compares cumulative total stockholder returns for the Company for the fiscal year ended December 28, 2002, the transition year ended December 29, 2001 and the preceding four fiscal years with the Standard & Poor's ("S&P") 500 Index and the S&P Networking Equipment Index. The graph assumes the investment of $100 at the commencement of the measurement period with dividends reinvested. No cash dividends have been declared or paid on the Common Stock. On August 6, 2001, the Riverstone spin-off occurred. The distribution of Riverstone shares to the Company's stockholders is treated as a special dividend for purposes of calculating stockholder return. It is assumed that the shares of Riverstone received in the Riverstone distribution were sold at the when-issued closing market price on August 6, 2001 and all of the proceeds were reinvested in shares of the Common Stock at the when-issued closing market price on the same date. Stockholder returns over the indicated period should not be considered indicative of future stockholder returns.
